++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Humid with sunshine and showers.

Today:
For most it will be a warm, humid day with strong sunshine, which builds showers into the afternoon, bringing risk of thunderstorms, particularly across the hills. Always cloudier across Lanarkshire. Winds light mainly from the east. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
The last of the showers will soon die away during the early evening, to leave all dry overnight. Clear spells most persistent across Ayrshire and Argyll. Winds light. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tuesday:
A warm, sunny and dry day for the majority with only a few isolated light afternoon showers appearing. Winds light again. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Warm for most with light winds, strong sunshine. With winds turning to the west the best of the conditions will switch to Lanarkshire.
